The Sedibeng District Municipality “District-Wide” Mayoral Imbizo

The Sedibeng District Municipality Executive Mayor, Cllr. Mahole Simon Mofokeng, takes this opportunity to inform and invite broader community, stakeholders and the people of Sedibeng in particular, those from the Lesedi Local Municipality to the District-Wide Mayoral Imbizo.

The purpose of this District-Wide Mayoral Imbizo will be to continue strengthening the Municipality's public participation processes and its key focus areas will be the following:

- The challenges and achievements which were brought about by our hosting of the two International Teams in our Region as their base camps;
- The Mayor's 100 Days Projects announced earlier this year;
- Plans going forward and inviting inputs and proposals on how best can we improve on our working together partnership;
- To share with our communities service and plans that government offer.

This District-Wide Mayoral Imbizo will be held on Wednesday, 28 July 2010, at 16h00 at the Ratanda Multi-purpose Centre, Lesedi Local Municipality under the theme: “Together with our Communities-A final push to speedy service delivery”

The Sedibeng District Municipality has since committed itself to a new work culture. We will continue to do things differently. All the things we do are characterised by hard work, efficiency, speed and quality services including from our local municipalities.

Once again, all are invited and transport will be provided for those who will be attending this important gathering. Please contact your Ward Councillor, CDW or your nearest Parliamentary Constituency Office, Sedibeng Office of the Executive Mayor for transport and pick up points.
